PIONEER WASHER.
E. G. BOLTER,
AGENT FOR OREGON AND WASHINGTON TERRITORY.
THIS CELEBRATED WASHING MACHINE IS now for the first time introduced to the Oregon public. It is unrivalled for its simplicity, durability and the rapidity and ease of its action. Washing the dirtiest clothes perfectly clean in from five to ten minutes, with but slight labor, and lasting, with proper care, for ten years. The wear and tear of clothing in washing by this machine is vastly less than by any other known process of washing. It does its work by a reverse motion in forcing the water through the clothes.
It having a tight cover, the steam thus assists materially in cleansing the clothes, and also avoids the inhaling of steam from hot suds.
This Machine captured the Special Premium at the California State Fair, and all that have used it pronounce it an invaluable adjunct to all housekeepers and families and washing men and washing women.
It has been extensively introduced throughout the State of California, and receives the universal commendation of all who have used it.
THE COUNTY RIGHTS, now unsold, will be sold at a bargain if applied for soon.

European News by Steamer.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—The steamship Russia, from Liverpool, Sept. 7th, has arrived. Reports are current of heavy cotton failures in Liverpool. Names not given.
The Tribune's Crete letter says the mortality of troops in the Turkish army is almost unexampled. Of 15,000 Egyptians who came a year ago, less than 6,000 remain. The Turkish army shows evident signs of exhaustion and demoralization.
Verona & Bros., of Moscow, have suspended in consequence of large cotton transactions. Liabilities about a quarter of a million sterling.
The bullion in the Bank of England exceeds its notes in circulation.
It is noted as a warlike symptom that large quantities of oats are being transported to France. A mysterious circular to the French Diplomatic agents, says the Emperor went to Salzburg to testify his sympathy with the Imperial House of Austria, so cruelly afflicted by their late misfortune, though it is true that they interchanged ideas on general interests. Neither the object nor the result of the interview was the formation of combinations not justified by the present state of Europe.
It is believed that 40,000 French soldiers are concentrated at Toulon ready to embark for Rome at the first signal.
The rumor that Napoleon asks the Emperor of Austria to give up the remains of Napoleon II., is without foundation.
Spain has decreed that vessels from the United States be placed in quarantine.

The Pawnees, said to be by far the finest looking and most intellectual tribe of Indians on the Plains, are an exception to the general rule that wild Indians are faithless and cannot be depended upon to abide by the conditions of their treaties. This tribe has always been friendly to the whites since the first treaty of peace with them many years ago. They are the boldest and most skillful of all red men in the use of arms, and the other tribes have a wholesome dread of encountering them in battle. General Crook thinks that with a few regiments properly equipped and mounted, if allowed to fight in their own peculiar style, he could soon put an end to Indian hostilities in his Department.

A new professor hitherto unknown both to the monde and demi monde of Paris, has sprung up in that city, that of "conductor to Mabille." Every evening a score of gamins gather on the Place de la Concorde and keep a bright look out for foreigners. As soon as an Englishman or an American, a German or Russian appears, they surround him, knowing that he will surely ask the road to Mabille. The question having been put, one of the lads leads the way, and having arrived at the gates of the garden receives a ten-sous piece for his trouble. A regular tariff has, it would seem, been in existence for some time past.

The City Council of St. Paul has voted to issue $200,000 of city bonds to the Superior and Mississippi Railroad Company, to insure and facilitate the building of their road from St. Paul towards Superior, $150,000 of said bonds to be paid on the completion and equipment of 20 miles from St. Paul, and $50,000 on the completion of an additional 10 miles.

The Marysville Appeal says a little boy in that city saw a Chinaman following a Democratic Union crowd, and asking him if he was a Union man, was answered: "No, no, me no Union man harey too muchee nigger!"

LETTER FROM SAN FRANCISCO.

[FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, September 17th, 1867.

EXPOSE ON A LA CHINOIS.

The steamship Colorado arrived on Saturday, the 14th inst., from China and Japan. Her cargo consisted of 35 white folks, 29 Japanese, 1,140 tons of miscellaneous goods, and 205 Chinese. The increase of this commerce is a very desirable acquisition, and if the Chamber of Commerce gives it half the assistance which lays in their power, in the course of a few years it will be setting towards this shore with a current equal to that which swept from the Indies down into the cities of the Mediterranean, when Athens was in her glory. In the absence of definite State laws applicable to the entrance of the scum of the Chinese cities into this State, our local officers should be on the alert that such laws as we have are enforced, and not such laws as the Chinese choose to introduce. As an instance, when the steamship Great Republic was about to sail, the ship was overhauled for passengers' tickets, and among the Chinese there were four who had not procured the consent of the Chinese company to which they belonged, to return to China. They had committed no crime for which they could be detained. They offered to pay the fare demanded for their passage, yet by the order of one of the head Chinese bucks, under the function of Captain Douglass of the regular police, and a special officer in the Chinese employ, these four men were dragged ashore and compelled to remain. There was not even the "trump up charge" usual in such cases, but they had violated their Chinese rulers' orders, and that was a crime. This is not an isolated instance; for such are of common occurrence. Such actions are outrages upon our laws, and a disgrace to the name of free America.
There was a rumor abroad that a fresh importation of Chinese women would arrive upon the Colorado. The Presidents and Secretaries of the six great Chinese Companies, under the auspices of some Americans, who are making money from their business connection with these people, drew up a letter in regard to the supposed incoming nymphs, and addressed it to Chief of Police Crowley, and Police Judge Rix. Our local papers published it, for it looks very plausible, thereby unwittingly aiding those six Chinese companies to further violations of our laws. Here is a section of their letter:

"It has heretofore been the practice of certain men amongst the passengers to claim each one of these women as his wife, and thus to smuggle them ashore.

What right have they on these shores to inquire into the private affairs of a Chinaman any more than into that of any European or American? Has our police court interfered with the landing of American or European prostitutes? Would they dare do it? No. And have not the Chinese the same rights to liberty that other nations have? Hear them again:

"If the laws of San Francisco will sanction any effort to prevent these women of bad character, and designed for prostitution, from landing we shall be laid under great obligation if to this end your Honor will interfere; and on our part we pledge ourselves to afford such assistance as may be needed by the officers in ascertaining whether the women are the true wives of the men who wish to bring them ashore, or whether they are designed to increase the evil which your Honor is now so laudably endeavoring to abate."

The laws of this city, nor State, nor United States, do not nor cannot give them authority to arrest or detain a person from their liberty, unless they commit an overt act against the laws. His Honor cannot, nor do we believe he expects to abate this evil, but simply to put it under restraint that it may not too far corrupt the morals of the people. The object of their letter to the police, was simply to blind our people, that these Chinese companies may increase their power. It aids them to stop any speculation outside of the six companies. There are very few Chinamen on the Pacific shores that would not buy a comely Chinese girl for a wife. Buy—that is, pay the price of her passage, and a bonus to the broker, and espouse her in Chinese form. Matrimonial brokerages are institutions in every country; we have them in this city. Have they not the same right to trade? These companies are determined to stop any speculation outside of themselves, among their people. A bribe or a co-partnership is all they want, and to this end they ask the sanction of our executive officers, that they may violate our laws and enforce their own. This is their aim as is known to every American dealing with them, or they are blind and will not see.
The Chinese pay more to accomplish their ends than any people on the globe. They believe in the open sesame of gold, and our people know well when to apply the magician

MONDAY MORNING, SEPT 23, 1867.

A Maddened Poet After Us.

A few weeks ago it was our misfortune to publish a slight criticism upon a recent work of a Coos county poet. We say misfortune, because the criticism has already produced unhappy feelings, and is likely to lead to still further unpleasant consequences. We quoted extracts from Mr. Woodward's "poetry," and unfortunately a typographical error or two occurred in them as they appeared in our paper. The word "right" was put for "sigh" in one place, which was the most considerable error we perpetrated. Our poet is extremely angry, not only at these slight errors, but also at the general spirit of our article. In fact, we believe the word angry does not adequately express the state of his passion. Probably it would be more correct to say that he is furious and implacable. We learn that he has sent a volley of letters all over the State bitterly assailing us, and evidently expecting to annihilate the OREGONIAN by this epistolary musketry. But even this is not his most serious method of retaliation. He has written to a law firm in this city instructing them to commence suit against us for ten thousand dollars damages for our criticism on the "Pioneer's Offering." We have received a communication from this law firm notifying us of the order of the author. Now as it is kindly suggested in this communication that "it would be better to settle this affair amicably than to enter into a long public litigation," we shall avail ourselves of the opportunity so fairly offered, of tendering an apology to our injured poet. We doubt not that the most effectual way to mollify him will be to reproduce a little more of his "poetry," so we give him the benefit of our columns to a limited extent for one time more. The following stanzas are from a "Mountain Song:"

I love the breeze that blows o'er mountains wild,
For I am a forest—I am a forest child.
I love to hear the echo in the canons glen,
Or catch old Brain in his rude den.

I like the bees that swarm into the hive,
And pleasant 'tis to take a watery dive,
I like the swamps where turkeys gobble,
And I laugh when the pooter hobble.

I like to climb the craggy steep,
And view from there the ocean deep.
I like the prairie green and yellow,
Also the mountain girls so mellow.

The following original and highly finished verses are from a piece entitled "Consolation:"

Dost thou plue for one that is gone,
Dost thou fancy thou art forlorn,
Dost thou frown because one is dead,
Dost thou miss the joy's that's fled.
Dost thou gripe with pains all o'er,
Dost thy fancy wandering soar,
Dost thou regret the loss of friends,
Dost thou feel thy heart it rends,
Dost thou think thy friend unkind,
Dost thou imagine them art going blind.
Dost thou hear of dismal tidings,
Dost thou grapple with oppressions rud,
Remember justice lies with God.

We cannot think that the most exacting person could demand any further apology than we have tendered the author by publishing these extracts. And we beg our aggrieved poet to regard our action in the premises as a compliment, and not consider this further citation of extracts from his work as an additional injury to his reputation.

We observe, however, that our poet is writing for a more substantial reward than mere fame. For this he cannot be too highly commended. His "poetry" is advertised for sale in Southern Oregon, and we learn that his principal object in publishing is the confident expectation of realising "something handsome" thereby. We would not for the world hazard a doubt of his success. If he persevere in publishing he must succeed. But let him adhere to his noble purpose not to rack his brains for the empty bauble, fame, but for the substantial reward of lucre. This is the only wise course, and we are pleased to see that an Oregon poet has judgment enough to follow it. Though doubtless, some, more learned than wise and more envious than discriminating, will, on reading his poetry and calling to mind the object for which it was written, exclaim:

Quid non mortalia pectora cogis

In our former article we said that our author was not insane. This was said without due consideration, and we can assure him and everybody that we meant no disparagement by the remark. It should have been said with a qualification; for of course we did not mean to deny that our author is moved with genuine poetic rage. We did not mean to say that he has not that species of insanity which the great masters of song are allowed to possess.—Seneca tells us that it is delightful to be insane after the manner of Anacreon; and Aristotle, first and greatest of critics, declares in his Poetics that there is no great genius without a certain mixture of dementia. And our own Ben Jonson understands by this, "the poetical rapture which rises as by a divine instinct and contemns common and known conceptions. It utters somewhat above a mortal mouth." Hence in making this apology we are willing to qualify our former remark, that the poet of Coos is not a subject of insanity. Believing that we have now fully atoned for the publication of our former article, and that we have recompensed him to the full amount of the ten thousand dollars damages which he claims, we here bow ourselves out of his presence and take our final leave of him and his poetry.

It appears from the dispatches that President Johnson, Gov. Swann, of Maryland, and others, participated in the ceremonies which took place last week at the Antietam battle ground. This action on their part will be a source of no little astonishment throughout the country. If battlefields, the scenes of our splendid victories and of Confederate defeats and humiliations are to be visited in this pompous style for the purpose of celebrating the discomfiture of our Southern brethren and of paying honors to the memory of the fallen defenders of the Union, when can we expect reconciliation? How unmanly it is to flaunt our triumphs in the faces of our vanquished brethren! Are they to be continually reminded in this way of their defeats! Let us hope that for the sake of future peace and for the honor of the Administration, that another demonstration like this will not be permitted during Johnson's term. That high functionary should hasten to atone for this ill-advised act by inviting the Confederates to get up a counter celebration on the Bull Run battle ground, and by appearing there in person to participate with Beauregard and ex-Gov. Wise in the honors of the occasion.

Ben Hayden manages to keep himself very conspicuously before the public as an expounder of Democratic principles. Probably he wishes it to be understood that he is a better Democrat now than he was in 1861 when he burned ex-Senator Lane in effigy in the streets of Dallas. This demonstration so highly flattering to Lane and so very commendatory of the Democracy generally, since they all regarded Lane as their champion, took place under the very eyes of the returned ex-Senator. Ben would now probably explain that this was simply a delicate way he had of manifesting his unbounded admiration for the Democracy.

The San Francisco Times publishes a lengthy article under the caption: "What shall be done with our debt?" If that paper had inquired of the Oregon Democracy it could have condensed its article into two words: Repudiate it.

THE VANCOUVER REGISTER.—At a meeting of the owners of the Vancouver Register, during last week, Mr. B. M. Washburn was selected as publisher of the paper, which will be Union in politics. Mr. Washburn is an old practical printer, has been foreman in the Register office for the last year, and as editor, will undoubtedly furnish a very acceptable paper—at least, so say those who know him. It is possible that, owing to necessary delays in effecting a change of administration, the new editor will not make his bow to the public before the 5th of October.

Ambitious Adolescence.

It pleases us, as it must please all the friends of the small attorney who made his first public appearance at the late Democratic meeting at Dallas, to learn that this young man is on the high road to distinction. Such strides as he is making remind one of a Colossus. Less than ten days ago he escaped from the tutelage of his mother and declaimed his first "piece" among the wise ones in Polk county; and now he is out with a challenge, headed with a Latin motto, (the Admirable Crichton that he is), addressed to a Senator of national reputation, pressing him to hold a public discussion with himself on the most weighty questions now engaging the attention of forty millions of people. Not merely one cubit, but many cubits, did that Polk county declamation add to the stature of Mr. Semple. Hereafter he is going to take care that the affairs of the nation, and possibly of the world at large, shall be conducted on different principles. Things in fact have been going at full career to perdition, and they have got to stop. Mr. Semple says so. And to verify his words Mr. Semple is going to throw himself directly across the path of all opponents and if he does not bring everybody and everything up with a round turn, why then the opposite forces must go right over him. But he wants it distinctly understood among his opponents that they have got him to contend with, that he is in the breach, and that they must march over him before they shall get an inch further. Let it be known among them that wherever they turn he will confront them.

It is clear from the tone of this Democratic youngling's remarks that nothing will divert him from his heroic purpose. Senator Williams is offered the fearful alternative of being utterly annihilated by him in debate, or in case he declines the immolation, of being charged before the people with cowardice, with bad motives, with fanaticism,—and thus being utterly undone. "I have watched you," says Semple the subtle, "as a sentinel should watch the progress of a mine, and I swear that the explosion you have planned shall never occur!" Oh Semple, what if you should become more sober and forget this dreadful vow! What if that "inimical hand" should in this way forget its cunning!

It gives us inexpressible pain to hear Mr. Semple proclaiming with the voice of a Stentor that he is going to "tell the people of Oregon that the Puritans are the worst of mankind." His opinion of the Puritans will probably consign the whole race to utter destruction. And when he tells us that he is going to assure the people of Oregon that he "would not believe the Puritans if they would swear by their hope of heaven and seal it with blood from their hearts," we shudder for the descendants of the Winthrops and the Bradfords. For of course Semple will fulfill his threat, and when the people of Oregon hear his opinion of the Puritans, it will be "all up" with the Mayflower men.

Simple Semple! The sudden change from a diet of sweet milk to the use of strong Democratic beverages, has fired his imagination. It was really a bad business when his mother let him go to that Dallas meeting!

The Results of Gaming.

If there was any lingering doubt in the minds of thinking men whether it was advisable that more stringent laws should be made against public gaming, two events of the last few weeks must have removed those doubts. A well known business man goes East, and as far as he knows leaves behind him a prosperous business; he returns within twelve months to find himself ruined by the gambling propensities of his partner. The superintendent of one of our oldest and largest manufacturing concerns goes to the Paris exhibition, leaving the management of part of the business of the company and some of his own private affairs in the hands of a subordinate. Thirty six hours after the principal's return the young man flies the country. Startled by the pecuniary crash which a meeting between the two had been avoided, the principal caused an investigation to be made which revealed the common story, that clerks and agents who would otherwise lead honest lives inevitably lower themselves to the grade of embezzlers when they become addicted to gambling.

In every charge to a Grand Jury, a County Judge should lay particular stress on the duty of inquiry into gambling. Every member of that body should inculcate upon his colleagues the necessity of turning their attention to this crime. Gambling is a hydraheaded monster that threatens the peace of every family, the happiness of every wife, the character of every trusted clerk, and the solvency of every commercial house in the State. Nine-tenths of the men of San Francisco may have no taste that way, or may have firmness enough to resist the temptation, if they feel its power; but one in ten or one in twenty will fall if the passion is once excited, and the opportunity of indulging in this vice is easy. The consequences are to serious for the danger to be trifled with. Honest men in San Francisco are to-day losers by men gambling with money that did not belong to them. Wives mourn with a deeper sorrow than those who mourn for the dead. Children are growing up who will inherit a dishonored name. Friends grieve over the misconduct and disgrace of men whose social qualities they admired and whose characters they esteemed until the mask was dropped.

No crime known to California society is more pregnant of misery than gambling, no crime which is so fruitful of evil as that of tempting people to gamble, is treated so lightly. Keeping rooms for public gaming and dealing games of chance should be made felony. A law was once passed by our Legislature making gaming a felony, and therefore giving the police power to break into any house where they had good reason to believe that such crime was being committed. Had that law been retained and honestly carried into effect, gaming would have ceased. It was repealed, and many a man walks the streets of San Francisco to day poor, who would have been enjoying a competency but for that repeal; many a home has been destroyed by the facilities which the tempter enjoys of leading men to extravagance, dissipation and theft.—S. F. Bulletin.

The Temperance Question in Massachusetts.

The following is from the Sacramento Union's Boston letter:

As November draws nearer, the excitement about the next election of State officers increases, and all signs seem to forbode a very interesting contest. It is generally understood that Governor Bullock will be re-nominated by the State Convention which meets at Worcester in a few days, not because he is the most popular candidate by any means, but because it would be a task of serious difficulty and might generate dangerous schisms in the party to select a new man from among the many politicians who are lounging and laboring for the prize. His nomination will be due to the fear of damaging discussions rather than to personal popularity. His course on the liquor question, in his treatment of which he has attempted the feat—always a favorite one with politicians, but never, I believe, successfully performed—of identifying himself with both sides, has created great dissatisfaction throughout the State, and comparisons of himself and Governor Andrew are frequently made to the great disparagement of the former. It being settled that Bullock is to be the candidate of the regular Republicans, the only question remaining to be solved is, how formidable will be the force of the "P. L. L.'s"—the License Law men? In my last letter I stated their number, on the authority of a prominent politician, to be 40,000 in the State; since that letter was written, this mysterious Order is estimated to include 80,000 voters. Many of them of course belong to the Democratic party, though that party's vote seldom approaches within hailing distance of even 50,000. But reckoning the strength of the P. L. L.'s at 60,000, which is a large figure, I think, aided by some persons whose Democracy is stronger than their temperance zeal, and some whose anti-prohibitory prejudice overcomes their strictly party enthusiasm, they will constitute an element in the approaching contest which can dictate terms to both parties. If the Order decides to nominate a candidate for Governor, which seems to be doubtful, some Democrat, whose war record will bear scrutiny, and who has proved himself a patriot despite his party associations will doubtless be selected as standard-bearer. In 1862, General Devens, nominated by the Democrats for Governor and supported by some conservative Republicans, received 50,000 votes. A candidate in his place, and helped by the potent influence of a secret organization like the "P. L. L.," might well hope to gain a considerable advance on these figures.

PIONEERS VS OCCIDENTALS.—The second game in the match between the Pioneer Club of this city and the Occidental Club of Vancouver, was played at Vancouver on Saturday. Spectators of the game say that after the players worked off the nervousness usually incident to the beginning of a game, the contestants on both sides worked hard for the victory. As usual, however, the superior skill of the Pioneers told with splendid effect, and they came out best, making 56 runs to 22 by the Occidentals. The following is the score of runs and outs for each player:

Pioneers.	Runs	Outs	Occidentals	Runs.	Outs.
Quackenbush, c.....	0	2	Johnson, l b	3	3
Bischtel, p	5	5	D Leahy, 2 b	2	5
Wiley, s s	5	4	Probstel, 3 b	4	2
Witherell, 1 b	9	0	McNamara, c	3	2
Clement, 2 b.	5	4	Brown, p	1	5
Cook, 3 b.....	6	2	W Leahy, l f	5	1
Steele, Jas. f	5	6	Lethin, c f.....	1	4
Steele, Geo. c f....	6	4	Orr, r f.....	1	4
Dolfinger, r f.....	8	1	Lyons, s s.....	2	2
Total,.....	56	27	Total.	22	27

Of the Pioneers, Quackenbush put out by 1, fouls 7, struck out same 1, bonus base 1, total 10; Bischtel, fly 1; Wiley, fly 1, 2d base 1, 3d base 1, total 3; Witherell, fly 1, first base 6, total 7, Clement, 2d base 1; Cook, 3d base 2; Geo Steele, flys 5.

Of the Occidentals, Johnson put out on 1st base 13; Probstel, 3d base 1; McNamara, flys 4, fouls 4, struck out 1, total 9; Brown, foul 1; W. Leahy, foul 1; Orr, fly 1; Lyons, fly 1.

Of the time occupied in the game—2 hours and 55 minutes—the Pioneers had the bat for 1 hour and 43 minutes, the Occidentals had the bat for 1 hour and 12 minutes.

Charles Grim old of the Spartan Club acted as Umpire. The scorers were C. B Upton for the Pioneers, and R Glover for the Occidentals. This game concludes the match between these two clubs

INVESTMENTS.—It would not be well for our farmers, millers or dealers in breadstuffs to build hopes too high on the recent impetus to prices. There is now already of a check to the upward tendency in San Francisco, and though prices have not yet begun to descend, such a turn at no distant day is probable. The Times' review of the markets for the 17th, says: "The opinion in New York is that Breadstuffs range at much higher prices than the largest crop justify, and purchasers are consequently confined to the requirements for current consumption. Advices from the West indicate that there is likely to be less disposition than during late seasons to hold grain for unreasonable prices: and it is anticipated that, when the prospects of the foreign demand are more definitely developed, every means of transportation to the East will be crowded with produce." When this occurs, of course, the markets will be full of western wheat, present prices will hardly be sustained, the margin on Pacific coast shipments will be narrowed, and as a consequence, prices will drop at San Francisco and here.

CHINESE "FRENCH-HOUSE."—The Chinese Joss house on Alder street has just been completed and the business of moulding it is in active progress. The vestibule is furnished with two large oil-cloth globes inside of which burn lights, which show to great advantage the cabalistic and beatheuish figures painted on the outside. In the inside of the house, the furniture is painted and bronzed and gilded in the most gorgeous Chinese style. The Joss-idol is has not yet come from the hand of the manufacturers, but he little throne and he is decidedly such a brilliant affair that Josh will prove himself a very great scalawag if he don't speak well of it. One of the transparencies exhibits the shadows of a procession of Chinamen, some on foot and others on horseback, representing Celestial warriors of celestial salute, we could not learn which. Wherever they are, they go round and round, propelled in some manner by a current of heated air, much to the delectation of the living Johns. There will be worship in the house this morning at 10 o'clock, on which occasion Josh will be finished and duly inaugurated.

A THREE YEAR'S JOURNEY.—Something over three years ago, Mr. C. B. Talbot was an employe in the OREGONIAN office, and was in the habit of bringing his noon lunch in a small tin pail. One day, some of the boys—it might have been the devil—spirited away this pail and threw it in the river at the foot of Washington street, since when, it had not, of course, cut much of a figure in this mundane "upper." The other day, the dredger at Swan Island, fished it up and it may now be seen at Buchtel's Photograph Gallery. The pail is identified by an inscription which Mr. Talbot had placed on it, for the purpose, we suppose, of proving property. The inscription—"C. B. Talbot, Oregonian Office, Portland"—is very legible. Could this pail talk, it could, no doubt, tell us some remarkable fish stories, all about its sub-aqueous journey of three years.

OREGON PRODUCE.—We learn from the Alta of the 17th, that from January 1st to Sept. 17th, the receipts of Oregon salmon at San Francisco, amounted to 8,766 cases 4,808 bbls and 2,606 hf bbls. During the same time there were received from Oregon, 149 bbls, 31 hf bbls, and 4 cases pickled beef; 40 bbls, 29 gunnies and 8 hf bbls pork; 3,391 pkgs and 527 gunnies bacon; 46 pkgs, 153 gunnies hams; 13 bbls, 466 hf bbls and 241 pkgs butter; 890 cases, 8 hf bbls lard. Oregon cured meats were in fair demand at unchanged rates. Transactions in bacon and hams were restricted to California and Oregon cured. On Saturday, the telegraphic dispatches to this paper gave the price of Mission potatoes firm at $1 75; the figure, probably, should have been $1 25.

A REMARKABLE CUCUMBER.—Mr. Chatfield at the corner of Morrison and First streets, has on exhibition a cucumber raised in the garden of Mr. Fleischner of this city, which is a most remarkable production. It measures in length, four feet and three inches, with a diameter in the largest place of about two inches. It is coiled, or rather, crooked and looks much more like a horrid headless snake than a cucumber. On the same vine, three or four others grow, similar in appearance but somewhat less in length. The variety has no name so far as we can learn.

THE CUTTER SHUBRICK.—The Alta of the 17th says: "The Lighthouse Boat at the Custom House received a telegram from the officers of the United States steamer Shubrick, on Saturday night, asking for pumps, posts, etc., and the Wapenda sailed with the appliances at one o'clock Sunday afternoon. It is hoped that the Wapenda will be able to get the Shubrick off before a storm renders her escape impossible." It will be remembered, the Shubrick ran ashore in a fog, on the 5th inst., at Big Flat, thirty miles below Cape Mendocino.

ESCAPED.—The negro, Lee, whom Deputy Marshal Saunders arrested on Friday on telegraphic authority from Oregon City, was placed on board the Senator on Saturday morning to be returned to Oregon City. The fellow watched his opportunity, however, when the steamer landed at Oswego, jumped off and made his escape up the bank—probably to gain some information in regard to the manufacture of iron. He wouldn't run away, of course.

TARGET EXCURSION.—Capt. Mills, of the Washington Guard, informs us that the company and their guests will start at about 10 o'clock A. M. on Wednesday upon their target excursion. They will take dinner at the Fulton House. The first prize for target shooting will be a gold medal, valued at $75. Every possible preparation will be made for the hospitable entertainment of the guests, and to make the excursion a pleasant one to all concerned.

NEW BOOKS.—The Portland Library received the following new books, on Friday: An Arctic Boat Journey, by Dr. Hays; Letters to Young Men, by Count Montalembert; Oregon and Eldorado, by Thomas Bulfinch; Poems, vol. 1 and 2, Joan Ingelow; Janus, a poem, by William Morris; The Man with the Broken Ear, by Henry Hult: Bonnoval, a tale of Paris, by Rev. W. H. Anderson; Army of the Potomac by Swinton.

FLAGS AT HALF MAST.—The flags, at the several engine houses, were displayed at half mast, during yesterday, in respect to the memory of Albert H. White, who died on the evening of Saturday. He was a member of Willamette Engine Co., No. 1. The firemen of the city will attend the funeral of deceased at 2 o'clock this afternoon; and for that purpose, they are notified to assemble at their respective engine houses at one o'clock.

JEWISH MINISTER.—Rev. Dr. Eckman, the Jewish Minister who came passenger on the Sierra Nevada, will remain here about one month, and will conduct the services of the orthodox congregation during the coming holidays, at Turn Verein Hall. He was formerly the officiating Minister in this city, and is the present editor of the Hebrew Observer. See advertisement in relation to tickets of admission to his lectures.

PERSONAL.—Gov. Woods returned by the Sierra Nevada, from his stumping tour of California. Although the labors of such a tour as he has made have been necessarily severe and exhausting, he looks to be in a very good state of preservation and is in good spirits, notwithstanding the temporary defeat of the cause for which he has been canvassing. He goes to Salem this morning by stage.

SAN FRANCISCO ADVERTISING.—We call special attention to late San Francisco advertisements: California Glove Co. offer the highest prices for deerskins; A. Feuchhausen, sole manufacturer of the celebrated Star of the Union Bismarck Bitters, Weil & Co., sole agents for Greaner's Pride of Oregon Tobacco.

OPPOSITION STEAMER.—We would call the attention of our readers, who are contemplating a visit to the States, to the advertisement of the North American Steamship Company in another column. The route is perfectly healthy, the trip shorter than by the old route, and the fare very low.

CIRCUS.—The New York Circus makes a reappearance this evening. Mr Hyland returned by the Sierra Nevada, but with what assistant talent, we are not informed. Those who want to know, should go to the circus and see

THE ROSENFELD-HOFF CASE.—We learn that the suit in regard to the Marshalship of this city, was argued before the Supreme Court and submitted on Saturday. The decision will probably be rendered to day.

COUNTY COURT.—On Saturday in the county court, in the case of John A. Blanchard vs J Knox and L O. Potter, judgment was rendered against defendants in the sum of $166 25, coin

WILLAMETTE FREIGHTS.—On Saturday the Senator brought down from Oregon City, 7 bales woolen goods, 13 sks and 84 boxes fruit, 10 boxes eggs, 252 sks flour, 4'0 sks middlings.

LAUNCHED.—The Chuch, which has been some days out for repairs, at the boneyard, was launched on Saturday and will take her place this morning on the route to Astoria.

SHATTERED CONSTITUTIONS RESTORED by HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

☞ We have but little confidence in the trumpet tongued statements of the proprietors of advertised medicines generally, but we are forced to concur in the opinion, uniformly expressed by all who have used PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER, that it is a very valuable article, and one that it would be well for every household to have at hand, in case of bruises, scalds, burns, diarrhœa, dysentery, cholera, fever and ague, and the host of diseases, external and internal, which it is adapted to cure or alleviate No article of medicine ever attained to such unbounded popularity and extensive diffusion. It has penetrated to every part, even the most remote, of the known world, bearing with it its healing influences more potent than those of the spices of "Araby the blest." We are informed by our principal druggists, that they sell more of this article for exportation than any or all others, and that the demand is constantly increasing.—Salem Observer.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is pleasant in taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and immediate in its action.

Those suffering from bad teeth can now have them removed free from pain and without the effects of inhaling chloroform, ether or nitrous oxyde (laughing gas.)

The right to wake when others sleep;
The right to watch, the right to weep;
The right to comfort in distress,
The right to soothe, the right to bless;
The right the widow's heart to cheer,
The right to dry the orphan's tear,
The right to feed and clothe the poor,
The right to teach them to endure;
The right, when other friends have flown

The right a happy home to make

The Removal of General Sheridan.

CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN THE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL SHERIDAN.

[From the New York Herald, August 26th.]

PRESIDENT JOHNSON TO GENERAL GRANT.

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, (D. C.,) Aug 17, 1867.

General U. S. Grant, Secretary of War, ad interim.—Dear Sir: Before you issue instructions to carry into effect the enclosed order I would be pleased to hear any suggestions you may deem necessary respecting the assignments to which the order refers. Truly yours,

ANDREW JOHNSON.

THE ORDER OF REMOVAL.

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, (D. C.,) Aug. 17, 1867.

Major General George H. Thomas is hereby assigned to the Fifth Military District, created by the Act of Congress passed on the 2d day of March, 1867.

Major General P. H. Sheridan is hereby assigned to the Command of the Department of the Missouri.

Major General Winfield S. Hancock is hereby assigned to the command of the Department of the Cumberland.

The Secretary of War, ad interim, will give the necessary instructions to carry this order into effect.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

GENERAL GRANT TO PRESIDENT JOHNSON.

HEADQUARTERS ARMIES OF UNITED STATES,
WASHINGTON, (D. C.,) Aug. 17, 1867.

His Excellency, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States—Sir: I am in receipt of your order of this date, directing the assignment of General George H. Thomas to the command of the Fifth Military District, General Sherman to the Department of the Missouri and General Hancock to the Department of the Cumberland; and also your note of this date (inclosing these instructions,) saying: "Before you issue instructions to carry into effect the enclosed order, I would be pleased to hear any suggestions you may deem necessary respecting the assignments to which the order refers."

I am pleased to avail myself of this invitation to urge, earnestly urge—urge in the name of a patriotic people who have sacrificed hundreds of millions of treasure to preserve the integrity and union of this country—that this order be not issued. It is unmistakably the expressed wish of the country that General Sheridan should not be removed from his present command. This is a republic where the will of the people is the law of the land. I beg that their voice may be heard.

General Sheridan has performed his civil duties faithfully and intelligently. His removal will only be regarded as an effort to defeat the laws of Congress. It will be interpreted by the unreconstructed element in the South—those who did all they could to break up the Government by arms, and now wish to be the only element consulted as to the method of restoring order—as a triumph. It will embolden them to renewed opposition to the will of the loyal masses, believing that they have the Executive with them.

The services of General Thomas in battling for the Union entitle him to some consideration. He has repeatedly entered his protest against being assigned to either of the five military districts, and especially being assigned to relieve General Sheridan.

General Hancock ought not to be removed from where he is. His department is a complicated one, which will take a new commander some time to become acquainted with. There are military reasons, pecuniary reasons, and, above all, patriotic reasons, why this order should not be insisted on.

I beg to refer to a letter, marked private, which I wrote to the President when first consulted on the subject of the change in the War Department. It bears upon the subject of this removal, and I had hoped would have prevented it.

I have the honor to be, with great respect, your obedient servant.

U. S. GRANT, General U. S. Army, and Secretary of War ad interim.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON TO GEN. GRANT.

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON (D. C.) August 19th, 1867.

General U. S. Grant, Secretary of War ad interim: I have received your communication of the 17th inst., and thank you for the promptness with which you have submitted your views respecting the assignments directed in my order of that date. When I stated, in my official note of the 17th, that I would be pleased to hear any suggestions you might deem necessary upon the subject, it was not my intention to ask from you a formal report, but rather to invite a verbal statement of any reasons affecting the public interests which, in your opinion, would render the order inexpedient. It seems, however, as you have embodied your suggestions in a written communication, it is proper that I should make some reply.

You earnestly urge that the order be not insisted on, remarking that "it is unmistakably the expressed wish of the country that Gen. Sheridan should not be removed from his present command." While I am cognisant of the efforts that have been made to retain General Sheridan in command of the Fifth Military District, I am not aware that the question has ever been submitted to the people themselves for determination. It certainly would be unjust to the army to assume that, in the opinion of the nation, he alone is capable of commanding the State of Louisiana and Texas, and that, were he for any cause removed, no other General in the military service of the United States would be competent to fill his place. General Thomas, whom I have designated as his successor, is well known to the country. Having won high and honorable distinction in the field, he has since in the execution of the responsible duties of a department commander, exhibited great ability, sound discretion and sterling patriotism. He has not failed, under the most trying circumstances, to enforce the laws, to preserve peace and order, to encourage the restoration of civil authority and to promote, as far possible, a spirit of reconciliation. His administration of the Department of the Cumberland will certainly compare most favorably with that of General Sheridan in the Fifth Military District. There affairs appear to be in a disturbed condition, and a bitter spirit of antagonism seems to have resulted from General Sheridan's management. He has rendered himself exceedingly obnoxious by the manner in which he has exercised even the powers conferred by Congress, and still more so by a resort to authority not granted by law nor necessary to its faithful and efficient execution. His rule has, in fact, been one of absolute tyranny, without reference to the principles of our Government or the nature of our free institutions. The state of affairs which has resulted from the course he has pursued has seriously interfered with a harmonious, satisfactory and speedy execution of the Acts of Congress, and is alone sufficient to justify a change. His removal, therefore, cannot "be recorded as an effort to defeat the laws of Congress"; for the object is to facilitate their execution, through an officer who has never failed to obey the statutes of the land, and to exact, within his jurisdiction, a like obedience from others. It cannot "be interpreted by the unreconstructed element in the South—those who did all they could to break up this Government by arms and now wish to be the only element consulted as to the method of restoring order—as a triumph;" for, as intelligent men, they must know that the mere change of military commanders cannot alter the law, and that General Thomas will be as much bound by its requirements as General Sheridan. It cannot "embolden to renewed opposition to the will of the loyal masses, believing that they have the Executive with them"; for they are perfectly familiar with the antecedents of the President, and know that he has not obstructed the faithful execution of any Act of Congress.

No one, as you are aware, has a higher appreciation than myself of the services of General Thomas, and no one would be less inclined to assign him to a command not entirely to his wishes. Knowing him as I do, I cannot think that he will hesitate for a moment to obey any order having in view a complete and speedy restoration of the Union, in the preservation of which he has rendered such important and valuable service.

General Hancock, known the whole country as a gallant, able and patriotic soldier, will, I have no doubt, sustain his high reputation in any position to which he may be assigned. If, as you observe, the department which he will have is a complicated one, I feel confident that, under the guidance and instructions of General Sherman, General Sheridan will soon become familiar with its necessities, and will avail himself of the opportunity afforded by the Indian troubles for the display of the energy, enterprise and daring which gave him so enviable a reputation during our recent civil struggle.

In assuming that it is the expressed wish of the people that General Sheridan should not be removed from his present command, you remark that "this is a republic where the will of the people is the law of land," and beg that their voices may be heard. This is indeed a republic, based, however, upon a written constitution. That Constitution is the combined and expressed will of the people, and their voice is law when reflected in the manner which that instrument prescribes. While one of its provisions makes the President Commander-in-Chief of the army and navy, another requires that "he shall take care that the law be faithfully executed." Believing that a change in the command of the Fifth Military District is absolutely necessary for a faithful execution of the laws, I have issued the order which is the subject of this correspondence; and in thus exercising a power that inheres in the Executive, under the constitution as Commander-in-Chief of the military and naval forces, I am discharging a duty required of me by the will of the nation, as formally declared in the supreme law of the land. By his oath the Executive is solemnly bound, "to the best of his ability to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution," and although in times of great excitement it may be lost to public view, it is his duty, without regard to the consequences to himself, to hold sacred and to enforce any and all of its provisions. Any other course would lead to the destruction of the republic, for, the Constitution once abolished, there would be no Congress for the exercise of legislative powers, no Executive to see that the laws are faithfully executed, no judiciary to afford to the citizen protection for life, limb and property. Usurpation would inevitably follow, and a despotism be fixed upon the people in violation of their combined and expressed will.

In conclusion, I fail to perceive any "military," "pecuniary" or "patriotic reasons" why this order should not be carried into effect. You will remember that in the first instance I did not consider General Sheridan the most suitable officer for the command of the Fifth Military District. Time has strengthened my convictions upon this point, and has led me to the conclusion that patriotic considerations demand that he should be superseded by an officer who, while he will faithfully execute the law, will at the same time give more general satisfaction to the whole people, white and black, North and South.

I am, General, very respectfully, yours,

ANDREW JOHNSON.

WOMEN.—A writer from the Paris Exhibition has a few words on the women who are seen at the great fair. He says: England sends us several misses, whose specialty consists in letting themselves be courted by all the world, then finishing by marrying some idiotic nobleman. Russia sends princesses, created and sent into the world for the express purpose of marrying artists. Spain sends guitar women, reported morose, and unworthy of their reputation. Here the eye rests upon an Italian, with black eyes and purple black hair, and coiffed with the graceful mezzao, which is one of the most ravishing head-dresses ever invented by a coquette. There is a Swede, with golden hair and complexion white as ivory, with indolent stop and dreamy eyes. A little further, the blonde German, melancholy, to be consistent to national character. But among all, it is the Parisian who is the most feminine of all women.

SANFRANCISCO MARKET REVIEW.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 17, 1867.

There has been nothing worthy of note the past ten days, and we can but repeat our last report. The stock market continues its downward course, but is evidently now more depressed than the state of affairs at the mines warrants.

Money continues plentiful and the demand fair, chiefly for ordinary business purposes and the movement of the crops. Rates are the same as those which have long ruled, namely, 1@1½ ₱ cent. at bank, and 1½@1½ ₱ cent. in the open market. Long dated loans, on prime securities, are only moderately active at 10 per cent per annum, with a tendency to cut under rather than lose the opportunity for investment. The various Savings institutions of the city loan willingly on mortgage collaterals at 10 per cent. per annum, rarely requiring a premium. For the past 10 days our receipts of treasure from the interior of the State and Nevada have been upwards of $1,000,000. Our coastwise receipts and imports foreign for the same time aggregate over $560,000, including $100,000 from Portland, $60,800 from Victoria and $391,400 from Mexico. The last named amount consisted almost entirely of Mexican Dollars. The receipts of domestic treasure, through Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, for August, are reported at $4,525,000, being rather above the usual monthly average. The shipments of coin and bullion for the past 10 days aggregate $612,000, being principally on Eastern account by the last Panama steamer. The total amount shipped from January 1st to date is $30,140,000, being about $4,000,000 less than for the same time last year.

The steamship Colorado, 29 days and 16 hours from Hongkong, and 21 days and 2 hours from Yokohama, arrived early on Saturday morning. Her cargo she has 1,140 tons merchandise, consisting largely of Teas, Rice, Silks, Spices, etc. Of the above several considerable invoices of Silks, etc., are en route for New York by the Constitution sailing on Wednesday next. The Colorado has in all 262 passengers; of these 235 are Chinese and 22 Japanese.

Hongkong, 14th August—Gold—The arrivals have amounted to $380,000, mostly in bar from San Francisco, and including half a lac in Sovereigns from Australia. The sum sent away is $220,000. Silver—The aggregate from California during the fortnight has been $1,250,000, of which about half came per Colorado on the 5th. $890,000 value has been sent away, and the remainder will doubtless go forward by the direct Calcutta steamers. Exchange—The rates have again slightly receded upon the treasure importations; bills have been scarce, and a general business very limited.

Money is very scarce among the Chinese, and to this fact must the general dullness which we have to report be, in a great measure, attributed. Large additions to the stocks of Flour and Wheat have been made, and further supplies are shortly expected, inducing importers to offer their parcels at a material reduction, and the lower rates have led to purchases to some extent.

The advices from the East, and from Europe, show a continuance of the extraordinary paralysis which seems to have overtaken the commercial. Money accumulates to an inordinate extent in England and Western Europe, and the commercial capacity of England seems to be at a loss to employ it, or to make it pay better than 1½@2 per cent. per annum—the market rates at present. There presents itself no opening for enterprise. As the harvest approached in England the unsettled state of the weather gave rise to uneasiness, and a good deal of anxiety began to be evinced regarding the results of the growing grain crops quite neutralizing the brilliant yield of the hay crop. From nearly the whole of Europe similar unfavorable reports are coming in. A vague feeling of uncertainty about politics seemed to have taken possession of the minds of the trading classes, and a great stagnation is reported from everywhere.

The New York Commercial Advertiser, of Aug 28th, says: Money is easy on demand loans at 3@5 per cent, the transactions at the latter rate being somewhat exceptional. There is but little money wanted on produce paper, and the banks are evidently disposed to keep their money on call until they can get 7 per cent. upon prime paper. The crop movement has as yet had comparatively but little effect upon the money market. There is an indisposition to buy grain freely until the result of the foreign harvests is more definitely ascertained. The New York Evening Post, of same date, says: The loan market is abundantly supplied at rates a fraction easier in some cases than prevailed a few days ago. Stock Exchange loans are 4@5, and heavy amounts are offering at 3 per cent.

The opinion is that Breadstuffs range at much higher rates than the large crops justify, and purchases are consequently confined to the requirements for present consumption. Advices from the West indicate that there is likely to be less disposition than during late season to hold grain for unreasonable prices; and it is anticipated that, from the prospects of the foreign demand are more definitely developed, every means of transportation to the East will be crowded with produce. This prospect justifies the anticipation of a closer money market ere long.

What to do for the shipping interest is a question that must be met at the next session of Congress. Our legislators will find by experience that nothing will thrive within our borders if the custom arm of our nation is greatly depressed. Very few make the mistake of separating in their estimate the agricultural and manufacturing interests. All well informed persons admit that the prosperity of one contributes more or less directly to the endowment of the other. But it is a common error to suppose that these two spheres do not when arrayed against the trading interest, and not a few have been heard to declare that the roving habits of commerce are unfavorable to the prosperity of agriculturists and mechanics. We endeavored, says the New York Journal of Commerce, to meet this error in an article published by us a few weeks since, and to show that in all the world's history no other stimulant to national prosperity had been found to equal commercial enterprise. But how shall the leading nation best prosper amid all the burdens now laid upon it? "Protect it," answers the friend of a high tariff. Impose extra tonnage dues and other disabilities on foreign ships, so as to compel the employment of domestic bu it vessels, and make the laws against the use of any foreign materials in this work still more stringent. This is one method proposed. The other is to remove all prohibitions against foreign built ships, and to invite cheap commerce on the free trade principle of open competition. The latter is undoubtedly the true theory, but it will encounter the old prejudice in favor of the Chinese wall system, which would not accept of prosperity, however freely offered, if the tongue proposing it had a foreign accent. It would be easy to show that a commercial prosperity, augmented by free trade in ships, would do more for even the shipbuilding interests than could be obtained by any other means, since it would lead directly to the only method of encouraging the production of vessels. The demand must always precede the supply, and the active use of any product is the surest means of promoting its production. The shipyards will be desolate for ages before they will push forward the construction of craft on speculation, but let commerce revive and flourish, and the echo of the axe will once more resound on all our coast

The ship Westland, with Honolulu dates to August 20th, arrived yesterday morning. The markets were quiet. The Lizzie Oakford and Kelliher, hence, had arrived out, the former en route to Howland's Island and the latter to Hongkong. The Jane A Falkinburg, from Portland, had also arrived out, having made the passage out in 14 days, same as the Lizzie Oakford

Notwithstanding the liberal receipts of Wheat and Flour, prices are fully sustained, as are those of Barley, Oats, Hay and Bran. In our opinion the present market rate for Wheat is beyond the limits of English buyers, and the shipments now making are for the most part the fruit of purchases made some time since in the country

FLOUR—Sales both for consumption and export continue tolerably brisk, at the following quotations for round lots: Extra bakers' in bbls at $6 40, do in hf sks at $6@6 25; extra family, both city and country mills, at $6 75@6 for hf sks, and $6@6 25 for qr sks; superfine in hf sks $5; qr sks at $5@5 25, fine in hf sks at $4 25, and qr sks do at $4 50 ₱ bbl. Oregon extra at $5 25@5 75 in qr sks, and superfine at $4 75@5 ₱ bbl

WHEAT—Sales of 2?0 sks choice, to arrive, at $2; 800 do do at $2?; 300 do do at $1 95, 10,000 sks choice, in lots, at $1 95@2; 1,200 do good milling at $1 92½, and 1,000 sks choice at $2 ₱ 100 lbs.

BARLEY—Market firm at $1 70@1 75 for new and $1 85 for old brewing

OATS—Sales of 1,200 sks, in lots, at $1 70@1 80 and 1,000 sks choice at $1 85 ₱ 100 lbs

ONIONS—Sale of 100 sks choice Bay at $1 37½ ₱ 100 lbs.

BUTTER—Sales for the past few days, not before reported, aggregate 200 firkins Eastern, at current rates. The shipment from New York for this port on the 11th instant was 1,800 firkins. We quote new crop Eastern at 32½@37½c, the inside figure for very choice brands; old crop is quoted at 25@31½ ₱ lb

CANDLES—The demand for the past few days have been light. Market steady and prices firm at 22c for standard brands, the outside figure for tenant's. Most of the invoices per recent arrivals were secured some time ago, and have been reported

COFFEE—There is a healthful tone to the market at 19@21½c for the various descriptions, the outside figure for old Government Java

FISH—Sale of 150 hf bbls and 200 kits Mackerel, ex Fearless, current rates. This sale we believe closes out the last invoice in first hands. We quote hf bbls at $14 50@15 75, and kits at $4 50@5 75

FRUIT—Hungarian Prunes are quoted at 19@20c, Zante Currants 12@12½c, Malaga Raisins, $4 50 ₱ box for assorted sizes

SUGAR—San Francisco Circle A Crushed is still firm at 18c, and other descriptions in proportion

SYRUP—San Francisco Golden continues to be sold from the refineries for 72½c in kegs, with 65@10c off for hf bbls and bbls respectively.

TOBACCO—The last steamer brought an invoice of 200 bales of a new brand, called the Emperor Brand, manufactured from the premium crop of Virginia. The invoice is put up in light and hard pressed form, 9 and 12-inch sizes, and sells for $1 12½ ₱ lb

We have via Boston Calcutta advices of June 22d. There was a vessel on the berth loading Linseed and Castor Oil for this port.

Dividends declared by our several city and mining incorporations for the present month are somewhat lighter than usual, being only $495,000, of which $107,600 is payable on and after yesterday. The usual quarterly dividends of our various Local Insurance Companies seven have declared quarterly dividends with great regularity and uniformity for some time past. Fears have been entertained that some of them would not be so punctual in the future.

The Internal Revenue collections for August for the San Francisco District amounted to $347,534. With one exception that is the largest amount collected during a single month in over two years. The exception referred to was in October, 1866, when the receipts were $1,188,071.

Dr. Smith was the first to establish a water cure on this coast, based upon the theory and practice of the New York Hydropathic College.

We have a truly healthful boarding place for men, women and children, and our prices are moderate.

The Phrenological organs plainly indicate the diseases to which any person, male or female, is predisposed.

Put this card in your hat, and when you come to San Francisco, call on Dr. Smith. He will give you consultation and a phrenological examination in regard to health. It will cost you nothing and may save you months and years of ill health and "bad luck."

Dr Smith gives free lectures to gentlemen every Friday evening, on subjects pertaining to health, at his Phrenological Hall, 627 Sacramento Street.

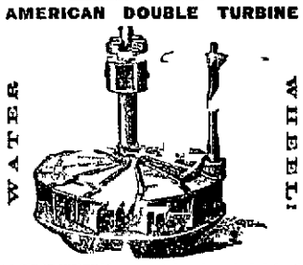
LEFFEL'S
AMERICAN DOUBLE TURBINE



THESE WHEELS, unequaled and unrivaled in the United States or the world, have been fully tested on this coast, more than forty being in use at this date, driving all kinds of machinery, Saw Mills, Flour Mills, Quartz Mills, Woolen Factories, &c., &c.

On account of the late calamity to the OREGON IRON WORKS we have lost a few Wheels, but of those sizes we have a good supply, therefore those contemplating using this Wheel need not be disappointed, but forward their order at once, accompanied with the CASH, which we now need more than the Wheels.

We cheerfully refer to all using our wheels, and are assured that all will affirm that our wheels accomplish all and even more than we claim for them. Address
